Highlights

1. Mutations in HSPB1 result in a motor predominant neuropathy

2. The mean age of disease onset was in the 4th decade.

3. HSPB1 neuropathy is characterised by early plantar flexion weakness

4. Muscle MRI demonstrates selective denervation of gastrocnemius and soleus.