The diagram shows the comparison of Mean AUC of Metformin between males and females treated with Metformin and Metformin + PEG 400.

- For males, the difference is approximately -9%.
- For females, the difference is approximately +2%.

The y-axis represents the Mean AUC, and the x-axis represents Male and Female groups.