Vitrus

Manuel Jiménez García ✕ nagami

Vitrus is generated from two pieces with different geometry and materiality. This combination creates a unique transparency effect that gives the object an ethereal quality. Its colours can be combined in a plethora of options, to seamlessly integrate into different ambients, transforming the space into a new experience.