Authors: M. Rodwan Abouharb

Journal: Journal of Human Rights

DOI: https://doi.org/10.1080/14754835.2022.2122786

This article was originally published with errors in Tables 1 and 2. These errors did not appear in the author's original manuscript. The errors reversed the titles of Tables 1 and 2. The tables have been corrected to match the versions in the author's original submitted manuscript.

The corrected tables appear below.

Table 1. Operationalisation of infant mortality equation variables.

Dependent variable	Indicator	Source
Infant mortality rate	Logged number of infant deaths under the age of one per 1,000 live births.	(Abouharb & Kimball, 2007), updated with (UNESCO various years)
Independent variables
Incidence major civil war$_{t-1}$	0 = No major civil war, 1 = Major civil war.	(Gleditsch et al., 2002) updated with (UCDP/PRIO, 2009)
Incidence major interstate war$_{t-1}$	0 = No major interstate war, 1 = Major interstate war.
Major civil war conflict history$_{t-2}$	Percentage of years a country has been involved in major civil wars.	Constructed
Major interstate war conflict history$_{t-2}$	Percentage of years a country has been involved in major interstate wars.	Constructed
Control variables
Ratified CRC	0 = Not ratified, 1 = Ratified	(UNHR, 2018)
Level of development$_{t-1}$	Level of GDP per Capita	(Heston et al., 2011)
Level of democracy-autocracy$_{t-1}$	Democracy-autocracy	(Marshall & Jaggers, 2007)
Level of educational enrollment$_{t-1}$	Total population 000s enrolled in education: sum of those in primary, secondary, and university education.	(Banks, 2015)
Population change$_{t-1}$	Percentage annual change in total population.	(Banks, 2015)
Tropical region	0 = Country not in tropical region, 1 = Country in tropical region.	(Li & Wen, 2005) updated
