In our country there are many cities, like Johannesburg, Pretoria and Durban. These cities attract immigrants to our country.
There are large gold mines in our country. They have caused immigrants from other countries to move to our country.
Some refugees do not want to return to their countries.
In our country, some industries need workers. No one from our country can work there.
Sometimes in our country, the right people for a job is not available. Immigrants fill those jobs.
The nearby countries see the academic standards in South Africa as high.
In our country, we have excellent educational institutions. Therefore, some countries send their students to our country.
We are very happy. We are proud of our country because it has many attractions.
