“Today, we are going to talk about our nation, South Africa,” the teacher said. “We are going to start with our map.”
“This is our South African map. We are up there in the North West in Mahikeng.”
“This is our South African flag. Go and colour it at home as homework.”
“This is our South African flag. Go and colour it at home as homework.”
Bofelo asked for forgiveness. He explained to the teacher that he had forgotten his book at school. The teacher forgave him and continued with her lesson. “This is a Protea.”
“This is a springbok”. The teacher gave them homework again. Bofelo packed all of his books. The teacher was very happy to see that.
South Africa, our home
