Grandmother Keaobaka invited my mother Karabo and my family members to go with her to church.
My mother told us and our father Neo about her conversation with our grandmother. They agreed that they would go together on Sunday.
On Sunday, we prepared ourselves to go to church.
We used our car to go to church.
My family and I arrived at church and met the congregation.
My sister and brother made a noise during the service.
My sister Thato and brother Lebogang refused to listen when our grandmother asked them to keep quiet.
Father spoke to them outside the church. He told them that noise was not allowed in the church.
After being disciplined, they kept quiet. They listened to the pastor’s preaching.
My family members were happy about the whole service.
