Pule and Kabelo stay with their grandmother in Mahikeng at Lorwaneng village.
Their grandmother’s name is Sana.
Pule is a respectful boy. The community of Lorwaneng loves him.
The community disliked Kabelo. He was disrespectful.
Kabelo is stubborn and uses bad language.
His grandmother, Sana, was ashamed. She worried about Kabelo’s bad behaviour.
His grandmother Sana decided to warn Kabelo that a lack of respect brings bad luck.
Kabelo realised his mistakes. He was regretful and stopped his bad behaviour.
Pule and their grandmother Sana hugged Kabelo. They were happy to see that he had changed.
Their home was full of peace and happiness. The community was also happy with Kabelo’s change in behaviour.
