Our people live in different places.

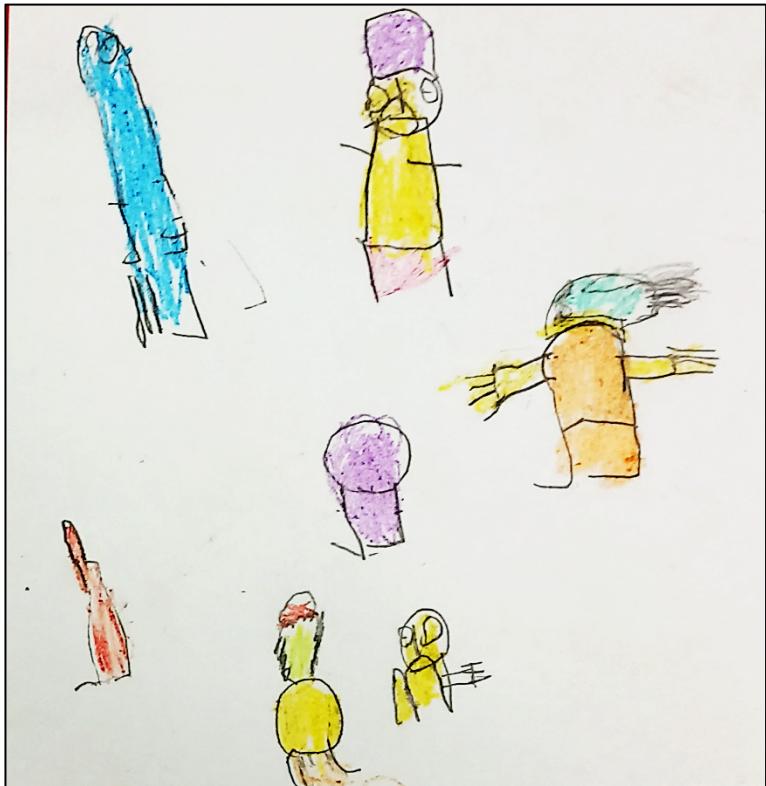

The reason is that they
are different in colour,
religion and language.

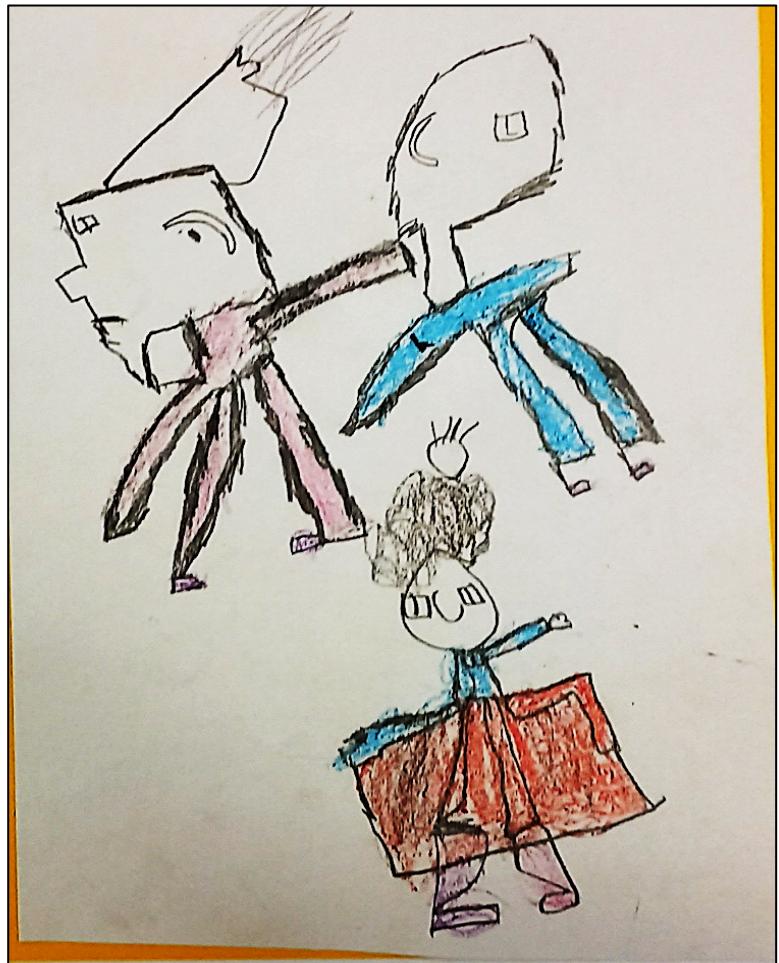

The differences in colour and languages cause our people not treat one another well.

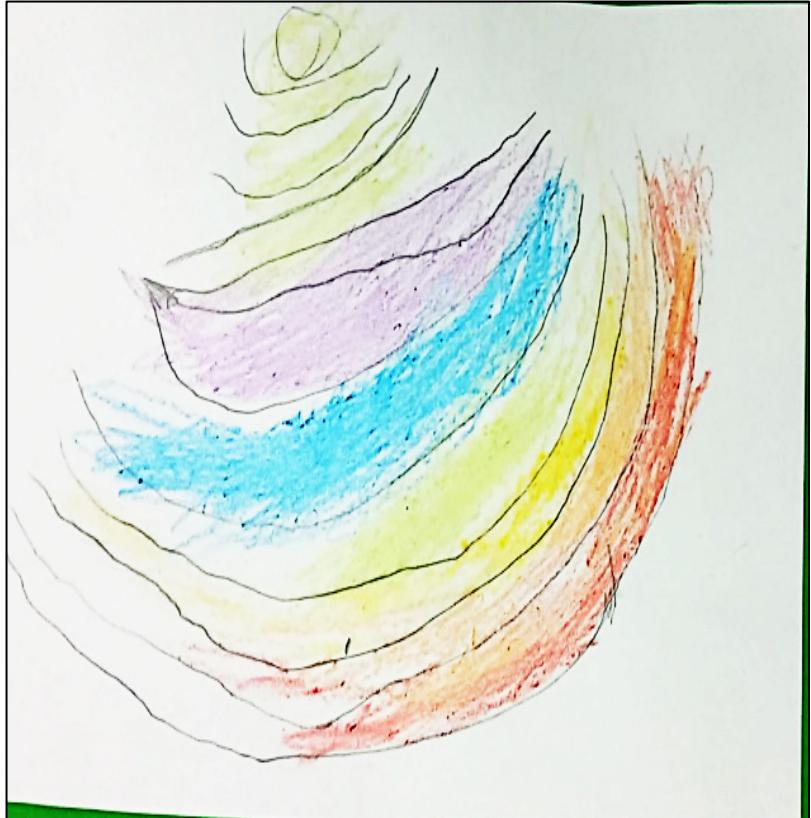

Do you want to only live with people that look like you? Do you only want to live with people that speak the same language as you?

The differences cause our people's attitudes towards one another to be bad.

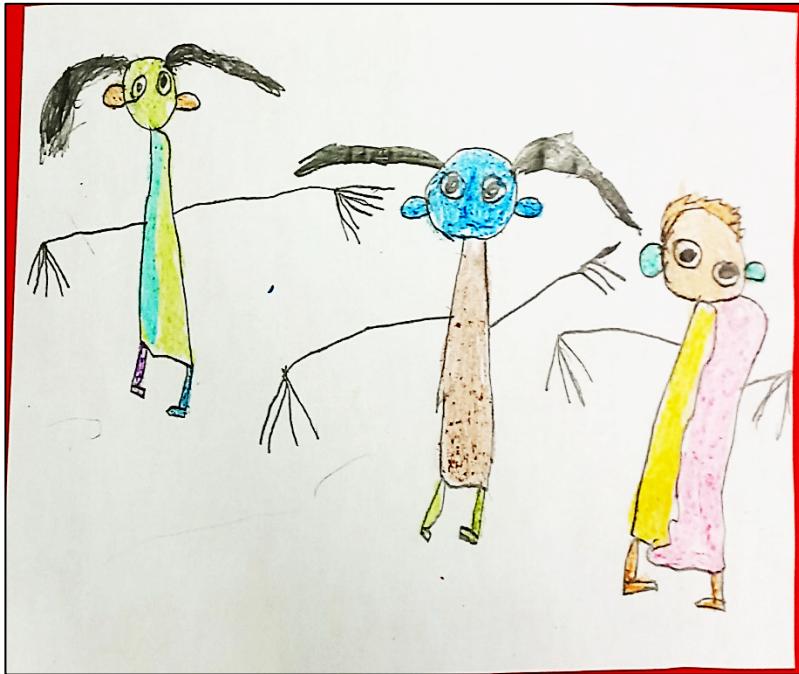

We are one!

13

We are the rainbow
(different colours).

14

In the end, we must unite as one.

The nation has united to celebrate and educate each other about the different languages, customs and cultures.
