To learn
Acknowledgements

The following partners have played a valuable role in the co-creation of this storybook:

The North West Province Department of Education, Ngaka Modiri Molema District, South Africa.
The Department of Basic Education, Directorate: Rural Education, South Africa.
London South Bank University, United Kingdom.
The Economic & Social Research Council (ESRC) (ES/T005149/1), United Kingdom (funder).
The mother saw it was necessary to teach the sister, the alphabets accordingly because she can’t read them by herself.
The sister teaches the child how to read and write, she does it by showing her from her own big book.
The mother took her two kids outside, a boy and girl to teach them how to plant flowers because she believes that the outside beauty is attractive.
Father teaches himself to take water the flowers that his kids planted in the garden with love, yet on other days they are watered by the uncle.
The sister saw that it is important to teach herself to clean the house alone, and pick up the dirt after cleaning.
The uncle cleans the garden outside, he’s teaching himself to clean without the help of the brother.
The brother teaches himself to play soccer with his friend having poles.
The sister and the child are outside together whilst the other plays soccer which is the sister, the child plays skipping.
To learn

Authors:

Lotlamoreng Primary School, Gr 2 A, 2022, North-West Province, South Africa

http://www.ucl.ac.uk/ioe/enabling-schools