Helping others
Acknowledgements

The following partners have played a valuable role in the co-creation of this storybook:

The North West Province Department of Education, Ngaka Modiri Molema District, South Africa.
The Department of Basic Education, Directorate: Rural Education, South Africa.
London South Bank University, United Kingdom.
The Economic & Social Research Council (ESRC) (ES/T005149/1), United Kingdom (funder).
It was Wednesday, the day of sports at school.
All the learners went to the playgrounds.
Keitumetse was looking at other children when they were playing. Her heart was broken.
Keitumetse answered: “I can’t play like other children.”
Keitumetse answered: “I can’t play like other children.”
Koketso held her hand and said, "Don’t worry, my friend, I will teach you how to play."
Keitumetse said, “Thank you, my friend.”
Koketso was patiently teaching her friend to play.
Keitumetse was happy because she was able to play netball.
Keitumetse said to Koketso, “Thank you, my friend, for teaching me how to play netball.” They were both happy.
Helping others

Authors:

Taolelo Primary School, Gr 2A, 2022, North-West Province, South Africa

http://www.ucl.ac.uk/ioe/enabling-schools