In Madibe village, there is a boy called Tshupo. He is ten years old.

Tshepo was very afraid of people.

At school, he was not doing well in Maths. But he could not ask other learners for help as he was very afraid of people.

One day, another learner called Karabo said, "Tshepo, let's practise Maths together".

Tshepo agreed, but his face was very afraid as he was not used to talking to people.

They went on with their practice until exam time.

Tshepo did very well in the Maths exam.

He was very happy and said to Karabo, "Thank you, my friend, you are indeed a good friend".
