Katlego was coming from school.
When she came from school, she changed her clothes and ate food cooked by her mother.
After she had eaten the food, she did her homework and went to play.
Katlego’s mother called her to wash the dishes, and she did so.
While washing the dishes, a glass fell and cut her finger.
She cried loudly. Her mother went to fetch a first aid kit so she could help the child.
After reading it, she used the first aid box to bandage the child’s finger.
Katlego was happy and impressed by her mother’s help at home.
