The Grade R learners were gathered at the playground to exercise.
They started the exercise by jumping and jogging.
After running for a little while, Tsholo injured her ankle and couldn’t run further.
Learners saw that Tsholo was injured and got help immediately.
They brought the first aid kit to bandage Tsholo’s leg to prevent it from swelling.
Thereafter, they gathered to continue playing loudly.
They gathered again to continue playing.
They were happy to exercise with Tsholo once he got help.
