Lesego is a girl who loves to read a lot.
She could not read, because she could not see the words clearly.
At school, some learners were always laughing at her because she could not read, and that made her sad.
One day, her mother took her to the eye doctor to get help.
The doctor examined her eyes and gave her glasses to help her see.
Lesego was happy that she got help and could see the words clearly and read.
From that day on, Lesego read a lot.
