Love
Acknowledgements

The following partners have played a valuable role in the co-creation of this storybook:

The North West Province Department of Education, Ngaka Modiri Molema District, South Africa.
The Department of Basic Education, Directorate: Rural Education, South Africa.
London South Bank University, United Kingdom.
The Economic & Social Research Council (ESRC) (ES/T005149/1), United Kingdom (funder).

Website and links were correct at the time of publication.
For further information about the project, please visit http://www.ucl.ac.uk/ioe/enabling-schools
Lerato is a smart girl. She loves reading and taking care of her body by taking a bath every day before bed and in the morning.
Teacher Kgaso likes Lerato because she is smart and loves reading.
A teacher at Lotlamoreng Primary school, ma’am Kgaso, realised that Lerato was absent from school. She had gone to the clinic. Nurse Neo assisted her.
The teacher asked the learners, “Children, where is Lerato?” The learners answered, “We did not see her”.

The teacher went to Neo’s house in Magogoe village.
The teacher found Lerato’s mother at their home. Lerato’s mom told Ma’am Kgaso that Lerato’s leg was broken.
Nurse Neo took Lerato for an examination, where she found Lerato’s leg broken, and the nurse had to put a cast on it.
One day the teacher and learners saw Lerato arriving at school. They did not expect her.
They were happy and excited when they saw Lerato.
Love

Authors:

Lotlamoreng Primary School, Gr R (A), 2022, North-West Province, South Africa