Fale’s donkey is brown and is always happy when running with other donkeys; It lives in a stable in Ramosadi village.
Fale’s donkey ran faster than other donkeys.
One day, Fale went to fetch water in a nearby river. The donkey fell because it was tired.
Fale’s friends were loving and caring, and they told Fale that he should not get worried. All donkeys in the world get tired.
They gave the donkey some water to drink and fed it some grass.
They walked with the donkey to carry the water home.
Fale’s parents were able to use the water for cooking. All donkeys are the same, but different in their own way.
