Lesego's family was sitting together outside when they saw the smoke.

3

Lesego cooked porridge
and then did not switch off
the stove.

4

Lesego's father told her mother to show her how to switch off the stove after using it.

Her mother was fearful. If left on, the stove could cause their house to burn down.

Later, Lesego's mother kept reminding her to turn off the stove when she finished using it.

Her parents took her to cooking school to learn how to cook carefully.

Lesego began to follow her mother's advice.

13

Lesego's parents were delighted when she started to be more careful when she cooked with the stove.
