There was a boy called Reabetsoe. His friends were Lebogang, Onkarabile and Ogone.

His friend Lebogang was the captain of the Rugby team.

One day they had a rugby match.

Lebogang was late on the day of the match, so the bus left him behind.

He was upset. His mother took out the phone and tried calling the bus driver so that he could come and pick Lebogang up.

Lebogang's mom said, "Hello may I speak to the bus driver?" "Yes, I am talking. Who is speaking? How can I help you?" said the driver. Lebogang's mom said, "It is Lebogang's mom. Could you please come back and pick Lebogang up? He woke up late".

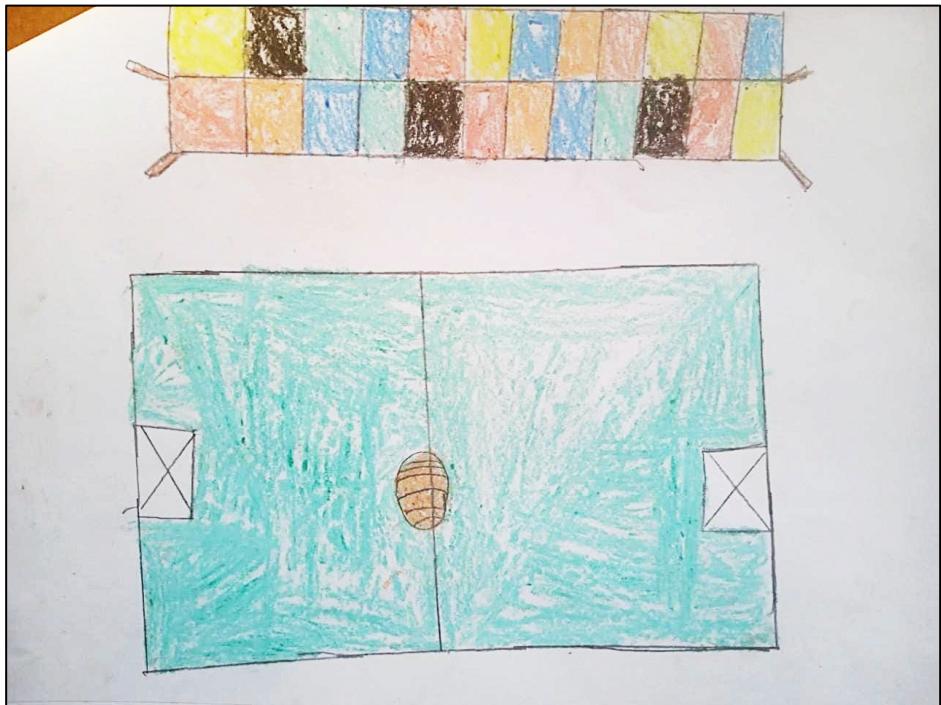

The bus driver said, “Yes, I can come. There is still time. The problem is that I do not know how to get there”. Lebogang’s mom said, “Reabetsoe, Onkarabile and Ogone will show you the way”.

The bus driver returned,
and Lebogang's friends showed him the way. They found him waiting for them.

16

They arrived in time for the competition.

They were able to play and win. Lebogang, as the captain, raised the cup high.
