Me and my friend
Acknowledgements

The following partners have played a valuable role in the co-creation of this storybook:

The North West Province Department of Education, Ngaka Modiri Molema District, South Africa.
The Department of Basic Education, Directorate: Rural Education, South Africa.
London South Bank University, United Kingdom.
The Economic & Social Research Council (ESRC) (ES/T005149/1), United Kingdom (funder).
I know how to play netball.
Thabo knows how to sing, and he has a beautiful voice.
Bongi likes to play soccer.
(Sunday morning)
Greetings, children. Today, we are going to start having a choir in the church. Thabo and Nomsa joined the choir. The conductor told Nomsa that she did not know how to sing.
“Nomsa, my child, why do you look so sad?” “The conductor said I did not know how to sing.”
“Nomsa, my child, you are so special; everyone is so special”.
As human beings, we are different; everyone has something or a sport they love and of which they are proud.
Thabo taught Nomsa how to sing.
Nomsa was happy and proud.
Me and my friend

Authors:

Pudulogo Primary School, Gr 2A, 2022, North-West Province, South Africa